

Reliable support and technology helps Aries Global Logistics do more

Aries Global Logistics is a freight transportation and logistics company based out of Franklin Square, New York.

Since the world of freight transportation is quickly changing, Aries is always adapting to meet the needs of their clients. It's a busy job, so they rely on ADP TotalSource® to help them on the backend with everything from benefits to HR.

Business challenges

- Manual processes can be time-consuming, pulling employees away from core tasks
- Multi-state locations means having to keep track of numerous compliance laws and regulations

Getting valuable time back

While Aries Global Logistics focuses on their clients, they know they can count on ADP TotalSource to help with the time-consuming tasks that accompany benefits and HR. Company Controller, Marie Smart, appreciates that ADP takes those manual tasks off her plate, so she and her team can focus on more pressing matters.

"ADP handles things like benefits and unemployment insurance directly. That saves us a lot of time and labor that is needed within our company."

A payroll partnership that exceeds expectations

Managing compliance, HR, benefits, payroll, etc. is a tall order for any organization to handle on their own. And when questions arise, it's always reassuring to have someone in your corner to assist. With ADP, Smart found dedicated support that went above and beyond her expectations.

"The reliability is something I could not live without. Just knowing I can reach out to my payroll rep and they will get back to me in a timely manner is huge. And if they don't have the answer, they research it and provide a solution to assist us."

Advisory services instill confidence

Smart rests easier at night knowing that she has the guidance of payroll and HR professionals to easily navigate any situation. ADP TotalSource provides real human HR help from experienced, credentialed HR professionals.

The ADP HR business partner (HRBP) for Aries has experience across industries and states and is available for day-to-day support and strategic guidance — something Smart relies on for their 11 locations.

"Knowing I have a payroll advisor and that I can send her documents from each state where we have locations is huge. I save so much time because I don't have to deal with that myself."

Confidently recommending ADP

Smart has seen firsthand how reliable and effective ADP TotalSource has been for Aries Global Logistics. She values working with ADP and highly recommends them to any freight transportation company looking for a similar solution.

ADP TotalSource is very reliable, a great payroll system, and a great professional service organization to work with. I highly recommend them.”
