

Fraudulent Emails Appearing to Come from ADP with Subject Line: ADP Payroll Invoice

Date: July 30, 2014

From: ADP Global Security Organization

Issue Overview

ADP's Global Security Organization (GSO) has received reports regarding fraudulent emails which appear to come from ADP containing the subject line "ADP Payroll Invoice." These emails indicate that your "ADP Payroll invoice is attached for your review" and instruct the recipient to contact their ADP service team at the number provided in the attached invoice.

Please note, these emails do not originate from ADP and our analysis has revealed that they do contain a malicious attachment. ADP is working with our security vendors and fraud prevention team to identify and contain the source(s) of these emails. Protecting ADP clients and their data from malicious activity has been, and always will be, a top priority for ADP.

Message Subject(s):

ADP Payroll Invoice

Please see one example of the fraudulent email below. There may be other variations.

How to Report an Incident

Please be on the lookout for variations of this fraudulent email. We will provide updated information as it becomes available.

If you receive any new or related suspicious email:

- Do not click on any links or open any attachments within the message.
- Please forward the email, as an attachment to abuse@adp.com.
- Delete the email.

For more information about phishing, please visit: www.adp.com/about-us/trust-center/protection-against-phishing.aspx

